ROYAL NUPTIALS

Of Prince George of Wales and Princess May of Teck.

A BRILLIANT MARRIAGE CEREMONY

In the Presence of the Crowned Heads of Europe or Their Representatives and Amid Universal Rejoicing Among the People.

LONDON, July 7.—The marriage of the duke of York (Prince George of Wales) and Princess Victoria Mary of Teck, an event to which all England had been looking forward with deep interest, took place at 12:30 p. m., yesterday, in the chapel royal, St. James palace. The wedding was a brilliant affair and was attended by a large gathering of the members of the British royal family, continental sovereigns or their representatives, and many members of the highest nobility.

Prince George, Duke of York.

Princess May.

The cheering as the royal carriage drove forward was immense. The members of the royal family and guests on alighting at St. James palace walked to the state apartments, and subsequently down the grand staircase and under the color court colonnade to the seats reserved for them in the chapel.

At 12 o'clock the duke of York and his escort arrived at the Chapel Royal. Five minutes later deafening cheers announced the arrival of Princess May.

The members of the diplomatic body, including the members of United States embassy and the other invited guests, occupied especial seats in the body of the chapel and in the royal and east galleries. Drawing-room dresses were worn by the ladies, the gentlemen appearing in full levee dress.

The archbishop of Canterbury, assisted by the other clergy, performed the ceremony, the bride being given away by her father. The magnificent gilt sacramental plate, and central alms dish which is said to have been manufactured in the reign of Charles I., and is valued at $50,000, was displayed upon the altar, which was decked with the choicest flowers.

The service began with the marriage chorale, "Father of Life," specially composed by Dr. Grier for the occasion, and sung by the "gentlemen and children of the chapel royal," as the members of the choir are styled.

In the middle of the service Barnaby's "O Perfect Love," a choral sung at the marriage of the duke and duchess of Fife in Buckingham palace chapel, was sung. The service concluded with the hymn, "Now Thank We all Our God." Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" was played as the royal party left the chapel, the invited processions of the bride and bridegroom leading to the throne room where the registry of the marriage was attested by her majesty and the other members of the royal family and royal guests.

The dejeuner was served at Buckingham palace, the toast proposing the toast of "The Bride and Bridegroom," and the lord steward the toast of "The Queen." After giving congratulations, the duke and duchess of York left Buckingham palace, driving through the city and thence proceeding by the Great Eastern railway from Liverpool street to Sandringham.

Among those who signed the registry of the marriage in the chapel royal were Prime Minister Gladstone, Lord Herschell, lord high chancellor; the earl of Rosebery, secretary of state for foreign affairs; the earl of Kimberly, lord president of the council, and the duke of Norfolk. The Duke of Norfolk is a Catholic, and signed the register as the hereditary earl marshal of England.

The dejeuner was a very social affair, royalty for the time putting aside its perrogatives and entering fully into the seriousness of the occasion. The toasts were drunk with all honors and nearly two hours were spent at the table. During the time the crowds awaited with exemplary patience as they could muster for a reappearance of the bride and groom on their way to Sandringham, the Prince of Wales' country residence, where they will spend part of the honeymoon.

At 4:30 o'clock the duke and duchess bade adieu to the queen and their other relatives and left the palace. They descended the street from the ground floor by an open carriage drawn by four horses awaiting their coming. The duke gallantly handed his bride into the carriage, and then himself entering, they started for the railway station along the route selected, which was literally black with humanity. The carriage was escorted by squadrons from the life guards and lancers. As the carriage drove off the queen and all the royal party stood upon the balcony over the ground entrance and waved good-by to the bridal couple.

The Duchess of York had thrown aside her wedding dress and had donned her going away gown, which was of Irish poplin embroidered with gold lace. She carried a small white poplin mantle, embroidery matching the gown, and a small over cape. The bonnet was of gold work surmounted by a small cluster of cream-colored plumes.

Along the four miles of route from the palace to the Liverpool-street station the royal couple received an unbroken ovation. Such masses of people were never before seen in London. The superb weather brought out nearly everybody in the metropolis who could possibly leave their homes or business, while trains from all parts of the country brought thousands of people who were swallowed up in the multitude thronging the streets and every point of vantage to see the royal personages.

The main part of the route was guarded by troops, mounted policemen riding in advance of the royal procession and clearing the way for them. The carriage was driven along slowly, which enabled the populace to get a view of the duke and duchess. They both kept up an untiring acknowledgment of the salutations extended to them. The procession was literally a triumph and such prodigious and spontaneous enthusiasm has seldom been seen before.

On the way back to Buckingham palace from the chapel, the royal procession was led by the queen's carriage. Following the queen came the carriage of the bride and bridegroom. An immense crowd was assembled in the Buckingham palace. Shortly after the royal party entered the palace the queen, the duke of York, and his bride and the Duke and Duchess of Teck appeared upon the balcony. They were heartily cheered and the crowd were wild with enthusiasm.

THE ENDEAVORERS

Heartily Welcomed to the Catholic City of Montreal.

MONTREAL, Can., July 7.—The Christian Endeavor convention got down to business yesterday morning. At 10 o'clock they were welcomed to the city by representatives of Montreal religious life. It was not until that hour, when the first meeting was held in the Drill hall, that Montreal had an opportunity of fully appreciating the great multitude that had entered the city's gates within the previous twenty-four hours. The Drill hall is a vast structure, and was filled to overflowing with delegates to the twelfth annual convention. On the platform were representative clergymen of all the leading cities of the continent.

For a quarter of an hour the vast multitude sang gospel hymns with dash and spirit, and then Rev. Dr. Clark, the father of the movement, arose and led the audience in repeating the Twenty-third psalm, after which Rev. F. B. Keene, of the Protestant mission, Japan, offered prayer.

Then Rev. J. A. MacGillivray welcomed the convention on behalf of the pastors of Montreal. His address was short and was very well received. Next came Senator Des Jardins, the mayor of Montreal. He got a royal welcome from the convention and when, after prefacing his remarks by a few words of welcome, he said: "While I am a Roman Catholic myself, and while Montreal is a Roman Catholic city in that the greater portion of her citizens profess that faith, none will extend a heartier welcome than we will," the great crowd cheered the speaker almost into astonishment. "It is not a battle of creeds nowadays" continued the speaker, but a battle between belief and unbelief," and there was another outburst of applause.

Secretary Budgett of the Montreal Y. M. C. A. welcomed the delegates on behalf of the young men of the city.

The third address of welcome came from Mr. A. A. Ayer, of the general reception committee.

The afternoon meeting was devoted to the Junior society. An address on the origin and growth of the Junior Christian Endeavor society was delivered by Rev. J. W. Cowan, of Tabor, Ia. The roll of state junior superintendents was called, and an address by Rev. Wayland Hoyt, of Minneapolis, on "The Possibilities of the Juntor Societies" was listened to.

A free parliament on "Junior Methods," conducted by Rev. H. N. Kinney, of Winstead, Conn., was an interesting feature. The meeting closed with an address by Mrs. Francis E. Clark, of Auburndale, Mass., on "Junior Christian Endeavor in Foreign Lands."

The Cadets Will Attend the Fair.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—The West Point cadets are going to the World's fair. The legal objections that were advanced have been overcome, and yesterday Acting Secretary Grant sent the necessary instructions to Col. Ernest, superintendent of the Military academy. The cadets will leave West Point on August 17, and remain at Chicago ten days. The expense of transporting the cadets to and from Chicago will amount to $17,000, and will be taken from the general appropriation for army transportation.

Two Victories Over Arab Slave Traders.

BRUSSELS, July 7.—Advices received here from the Congo Free State report two victories over the Arab slave traders. The Arabs recently attacked the forces of the state stationed at Stanley Falls, but were repulsed with heavy loss.

M. Beernaert, the prime minister, read the news of the Belgian victories in the chamber of deputies yesterday, and it was received with great enthusiasm.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES.

—A cyclone struck Lakefield, Minn., about 9:30 Wednesday night doing considerable damage to buildings.

—The American savings bank at Omaha, Neb., has suspended, with deposits of $153,000 and assets of $250,000.

—The Furnace Fire Clay Co.'s works at Salineville, O., were burned early yesterday morning. Loss, $15,000; insured.

—Four men and two women lost their lives in a fire in the floating Bethel, a home for rivermen, anchored at St. Paul, Minn., Wednesday night.

—The Princess of Wales' gift to the bride of her son, the Princess May of Teck, consisting mostly of jewelry and precious stones, was valued at $1,250,000.

—Judging by the attendance, the Music congress at the World's fair this week ranks second in popularity only to the first congress held—that of Woman's Progress.

—Vice-President Stevenson and his opposing candidate for his high office, Whitelaw Reid, were both at the World's fair yesterday, the presence of each, however, being unknown to the other.

—President Cleveland reached Gray Gables at 9:30 Wednesday night, a few minutes before the beginning of the most violent thunder, hail and wind-storm that had swept over Buzzard's Bay for years.

—A fire entailing a heavy loss occurred in Alton, a suburb of Hamburg, yesterday. The buildings destroyed were Stucken & Anderson's coffee warehouse and Wechnert's granary. The loss is placed at 500,000 marks.

—Hundreds of Texas cattle which have been driven into Oklahoma from the Cherokee strip by the soldiers are dying of the Spanish fever, and farmers along the line are greatly alarmed over the prospects of their domestic cattle becoming infected.

—The secretary of the treasury and Mrs. Carlisle, their youngest son, Miss Berry, of Kentucky, and Col. O. O. Staley, were on the World's fair grounds early yesterday in charge of the secretary's son, W. K. Carlisle, who is attorney for the exposition.

—The marriage of the duke of York (Prince George of Wales) and Princess Victoria Mary of Teck, an event to which all England had been looking forward with deep interest, took place at 12:30 p. m. yesterday in the chapel royal, St. James palace, London.

—During a storm Wednesday night at Kingston, N. Y., Vandam Bros.' powder magazine at Devil's lake was struck by lightning and completely demolished. Fifty-five kegs of powder in the magazine exploded, destroying several buildings and severely injuring nine persons.

—Comptroller Eckels states that the information given out in his office Wednesday that he had directed Bank Examiner Wilson to take charge of the First national bank of Albuquerque, N. M., was a mistake. The name of the bank was the Albuquerque (N. M.) national bank.

—The British battleship Camperdown was placed on dock at Valetta yesterday to undergo repairs. When she came out of the water it was seen that her stem had been broken off just under the torpedo tube, about nine feet down. Her ram was bent over toward her port side and six of her plates, three on each side, were damaged.

The Nicaraguan Minister Recalled.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—Dr. Guzman, the Nicaraguan minister, yesterday called upon Secretary Gresham and presented his letters of recall. He has communicated to the department the fact that the Nicaraguan government has abolished its relations here and in Europe—in fact, in all save a few countries in South and Central America. This action is understood to be based on economical considerations. As a matter of international comity the diplomatic representation of one country with another is expected to be reciprocal. American interests in the canal are so important, however, that Mr. Lewis Baker, of Minnesota, the present minister to Nicaragua, will probably be requested to remained.

The Anniversary of the Battle With the Pinkertons.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 7.—Yesterday was the anniversary of the battle with the Pinkerton men. At night there was a rumor that an attempt would be made to burn the Carnegie mill and that regiments in Pittsburgh were under arms. The mill was in full operation yesterday, the workers being largely made up from Homestead strikers. A demonstration had been talked of, but the Carnegie management gave notice that every man not working yesterday would be discharged, and this curbed the turbulent spirits, for all Homestead, save merchants, works at the mill.

Foreign Commissioners Exempt from Arrest.

DIRECTOR-GENERAL DAVIS' ORDER,

Intended to Placate Indignant Foreigners—The Royal Nuptials Celebrated by Loyal Englishmen at the Columbian Exposition.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, CHICAGO, July 7.—Director-General Davis yesterday issued the following special order relative to the treatment of foreign commissioners, which will result in an amicable adjustment of the Paraguay case and put a stop effectually to further complications and protests from the foreign representatives:

To the Director of Works, the Chief of Departments and Commandant of the Columbian Guards:

GENTLEMEN—You will instruct your subordinates that the foreign commissioners to the World's Columbian exposition must at all times be treated with special respect and consideration.

Foreign commissioners are to be admitted to the grounds and to the buildings in which they have exhibits at all times upon presentation of their badges and passes, and within the sections assigned to those governments their authority must be recognized by all officers and employes so far as may be consistent with the published rules of the exposition. Foreign commissioners are exempt from arrest, and any question concerning their rights and privileges under the rules and regulations should be reported to this office, and no further action taken without special instructions.

[Signed.] GEORGE R. DAVIS,
Director-General.

A copy of the order with a note of regret was sent to Commissioner Hasler, of Paraguay, and Royal Commissioner Loffler, honorary of the foreign commissioners' order. The Paraguay exhibits will be opened to public view today.

With the royal standard flying over the main entrance to Victoria house, streamers of Union Jacks strung at the four corners of the typical building; with the naval peanant of England interspersed in honor of the royal bridegroom's association with his grandmother's navy; with decidedly English music from an English military band, and finally with ruby punch of a most decided English effect, the royal subjects of her majesty, who are identified with the British and colonial exhibits at the fair, celebrated the marriage of the Duke of York and Princess Mary of Teck, which took place at 8 o'clock in the morning, Chicago time.

The festivities were informal and lasted from 4 to 6 o'clock. Those invited were the colonial commissioners and exhibitors and Englishmen, Irishmen and Scotchmen attached to the British sections, about 100 in all. Toasts to the health, happiness and long life of the royal bride and bridegroom were heartily drank, Sir Henry T. Wood, secretary of the committee, leading, while the Tournament band played English airs. One of the wedding presents for Princess May stood near the great fireplace in the parlor. It was an Irish spinning wheel, made by James McCreery, of Belfast, and presented by him to her serene highness. It was made to be presented to the princess on the occasion of her marriage to the late Duke of Clarence and Avondale, and when the fair is over Mr. McCreery, who has been making spinning-wheels all his life, will go to Sandringham house and personally present the wheel to the Duke of York's bride. It forms part of the Victoria house exhibit.

Lectured Into Penitence and Good Resolves.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, CHICAGO, July 7.—Those national commissioners who were punctual in their attendance yesterday were again compeled to wait for the tardy members who come and go when they please. After a half-hour's wait a quorum was secured and President Palmer proceeded to lecture his recalcitrant colleagues without being too particular about treading on their toes. The president declared that the indifference of the commission to its duty was justly deserving of the contemptuous treatment of the body by every paper in the country. He added that if the censure was not strong enough he would strengthen it. The commissioners involved in the censure winced a bit, and becoming penitent the commission stood up to renew its pledge to be in their seats at 12 o'clock every day. To clinch the matter fifty-five commissioners, just a quorum, voted to stay in Chicago until adjournment so as to preserve a quorum.

A Russian Exhibit Seized.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, CHICAGO, July 7.—Following the arrest of Ivan S. Levitte, of the Russian Silversmith Co., in the Russian section, which took place Wednesday, special officers seized the exhibit. It has been placed in the care of a special detail of inspectors pending the decision of the case by the courts. The seizure is the result of a violation by the firm of the treasury laws in selling exhibits under bonds. The prosecution will continue until the exhibitors learn that the law must be obeyed.

Another World's Fair Exhibitor in Trouble.

CHICAGO, July 6.—Giovanni Boucinelli, an exhibitor at the World's fair, was held to the federal grand jury this afternoon by United States Commissioner Hoyne in bonds of $1,000. He was arrested this morning in the Italian section of the Manufactures building, charged with selling goods in bond.

Paid Admissions to the World's Fair.

CHICAGO, July 7.—The paid admissions at the World's fair yesterday were 90,335.

ANDREW LANG disclaims responsibility for the remark credited to him that Swinburne had been writing very bad poetry lately, and that the inference was that Swinburne had been keeping sober. Mr. Lang does not agree with Lord Byron, who once remarked: "Genius be ——; it's all gin."

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassell, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his Liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawber, O., had five large Fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. DAILY REPUBLICAN.

R. K. HAMSHER. | W. P. CALHOUN.
HAMSHER & CALHOUN, Prop'rs
DECATUR, ILLINOIS.

FRIDAY EVE., JULY 7, 1893.

It is reported that Julia Marlowe and her leading man, Robert Tabor, have been married.

If it were not for an attack of rheumatism Grover Cleveland would be fishing. Under the circumstances he can neither fish nor cut bait.

Kansas is about as near without a governor as Illinois. Their governor is trying to run a miners strike in the interest of the Populist party.

The free silver coinage men are talking about making a fight for the speakership. The time is too short to complete arrangements to make anything but a losing fight against his organization and the taking-it-for-granted that Crisp will be elected.

The insurance man is getting in his work on this administration and, strange as it may seem, some are securing appointments on the grounds of modesty—at least such is the report as to R. J. Smith, just appointed postmaster for Chicago. It is said he won the place by not boring the president with his claims.

An anarchist meeting called for tonight, at the Windsor Theater, New York, to celebrate Gov. Altgeld's pardon of the Chicago anarchists, has been forbidden by Superintendent of Police Byrnes. If Altgeld was right in pardoning these men, the action of New York in suppressing a demonstration in glorification of anarchy and Altgeld, is an insult to our magnificent chief magistrate.

The Review wants argument. Well, if it cannot get what it wants, why don't it take its own advice and produce some argument in support of its erstwhile statement that the Harrison administration and Claus Spreckels were working together in the interest of the annexation of Hawaii. In the light of the fact that Blount, Cleveland and Spreckels are in harmony in their effort to defeat annexation, argument would be in order.

Those Democratic statesmen who are saying that the present derangement of business is due to Republican legislation should be frequently reminded that under the same laws when Republicans had control of the government the people were prosperous and everything run smooth, until the country awoke to the fact that a Democratic administration had been elected. They should also be reminded that until they have enacted different laws and restored confidence, and put the idle laborers to work, nobody cares to hear their "big talk." Democracy's business is to saw wood and begin it at once.

There is just about as much honesty of purpose in Altgeld's attempt to excuse the pardon of the Anarchist by an attack on the courts that tried them as there was in his attack on the management of the state penitentiaries which were self-supporting and then turning around after his election and approving bills aggregating nearly half a million dollars to buy machinery to keep the convicts at work in competition with free labor which he condemned during the campaign so lustily. The facts are he is one of the most dangerous mountebanks that has ever been forced upon the people by any set of party leaders.

Who was it that promised to raise the wages of workingmen and increase the demand for labor if the Democrats came into power? A great many people want to find him but he is not as omnipresent as he was last fall. In the meantime men are losing their employment while others are submitting to a reduction of wages. The finishers in the Amalgamated Association, who refused last year to continue to work at the previous year's wages, have submitted to a reduction of wages of from 10 to 20 per cent, and the carpenters union of Chicago, has agreed to a reduction of from 40 to 35 cents per hour, because there are so many idle carpenters. And so it is all over the country. This is precisely what we predicted before the election. There has never been a Democratic victory in this country that did not prove disastrous to workingmen, and this one is no exception.

The Decatur Review has several times challenged the Republican to produce some argument to show in what respect John P. Altgeld did wrong in pardoning the anarchists. The Republican is not called upon to produce argument to prove wrong that which everybody accepts as a contemptible exercise of power. Aside from this, the fact that Herr Most and the other ranting anarchists of this country and Europe applaud that feature of the pardon which assails the courts, the jury and the officers of the law, and makes martyrs of the anarchists who were executed, renders it unnecessary to offer proof to show Altgeld's perfidy; and, in addition to this, any governor who has taken an oath to uphold the constitution of the state and enforce the law, as John P. Altgeld has done, and then in turning loose upon the community a trio of law-defiers and law haters assails the courts, a co-ordinate branch of the government, with a view of stimulating the minds of a lot of beetle-headed unAmerican anarchists to more intense hatred for the law and the courts, cannot be defended from any but an anarchistic point of view. John P. Altgeld has disgraced the people who elected him, excepting the anarchistic and socialistic vote which he commanded, and has disgraced the state of Illinois by the attack he made upon the courts set up by the people themselves, and is entitled to no defense.

Grand Jury Echoes.

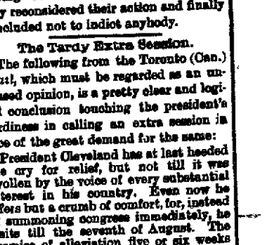
This morning the Review undertakes to give what it terms "inside facts" in reference to the late grand jury which considered the Sam Bush negro lynching case and adjourned without indicting anybody. It is asserted that at the beginning the jury had planned to indict everybody who were in or about the jail—about 1,500 persons, including the officers and guards. The facts are that at no time did the jury contemplate indicting such a large number of people. They did make out a list of 43 persons to indict, and that list has been seen by the writer. None of the officers or guards who were in the jail or about the court house that memorable night are in the list. Only three Decatur people are named. They are men supposed to have assisted in the lynching of Bush. After having the indictments drawn up the jury reconsidered their action and finally concluded not to indict anybody.

The Tardy Extra Session.

The following from the Toronto (Can.) Mail, which must be regarded as an unbiased opinion, is a pretty clear and logical conclusion touching the president's tardiness in calling an extra session in face of the great demand for the same:

President Cleveland has at last heeded the cry for relief, but not till it was swollen by the voice of every substantial interest in his country. Even now he offers but a crumb of comfort, for, instead of summoning congress immediately, he waits till the seventh of August. The promise of alleviation five or six weeks hence is better than hope deferred another month, and this is all the difference there is in congress meeting the first week in August and congress meeting the first week in September, as the president originally intended should be done. The certainty that congress would meet in extra session early in September failed to stay the steady decline in confidence, contraction of credit, and depreciation in securities and in all other descriptions of property. Since an extra session was resolved upon, millions have been lost through bank suspensions, and through the lack of bank accommodation to manufacturers, importers, and the holders of the country's staple crops; Chicago, the Northwest, and the Pacific coast have been on the verge of panic, and the wave of depression has spoiled on New York with almost as much force as in April last; the financial and commercial interests of the whole country have been plunged into a very slough of despond. The certainty that Congress will meet on the seventh of August will have little more power to arrest vanishing values and ruinous distrust. The situation has become altogether too grave to be lulled to rest by a future contingent prospect. What is wanted is the repeal of the Sherman Act, and the nervous state of the country makes it the urgent duty of the President to bring Congress together at once for the extinction of that ill-starred measure. But it looks as if President Cleveland wants to see the country overwhelmed by the consequences of its financial folly before he will be convinced that its penitence can be relied on for a safe vote in favor of repeal. * * *

It is possible, however, that President Cleveland has let slip the opportunity of his life to win a place among the saviours of his country. He has let its most momentous interests struggle for life without holding out a hand to help them. When congress meets in August natural agencies—exportation, favorable foreign balances, returning gold—will have begun to ameliorate the situation, so that the repeal of the Sherman act will not be thankfully received.



ON TRIAL.

That's a good way to buy a medicine, but it's a pretty hard condition under which to sell it. Perhaps you've noticed that the ordinary hit or miss medicine doesn't attempt it.

The only medicine of its kind so remarkable in its effects that it can be sold on this plan is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. As a blood-cleanser, strength-restorer, and flesh-builder, there's nothing like it known to medical science. In every disease where the fault is in the liver or the blood, as Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness, and the most stubborn Skin, Scalp, and Scrofulous affections, it is guaranteed in every case to benefit or cure, or you have your money back.

To every sufferer from Catarrh, no matter how bad the case or of how long standing, the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy say this: "If we can't cure it, perfectly and permanently, we'll pay you $500 in cash." Sold by all druggists.

The Pride of Decatur, WHITE LOAF FLOUR, The Blue Ribbon brand.

THERE was a merry picnic party at Riverside Park last evening, and when the hour arrived to come home all took possession of a trailer car and insisted on it being attached to a motor car against the mild protests of the conductor. Finally the trailer was hooked on and the party had fun all the way up town.

THE Central Illinois Conference of the U. B. church will convene in Decatur on Sept. 7. Bishop J. W. Holt, of Dayton, W. Va., will preside. The reverend gentleman has recently traveled in Palestine and during the sessions of the conference he will deliver a lecture and perhaps two concerning his travels in that country.

COST HIM $25 AND COSTS.

Bad Break of an Arcola Young Man at a Dwelling House.

H. C. Stein, a young man from Arcola, called at the home of W. N. Andrews, the printer, on North Main street yesterday, and entering the dwelling surprised Mrs. Andrews by asking her if she had finished her housework yet, and when the lady asked what he wanted, he took a chair and quietly remarked, "Oh; nothing just now." Mr. Andrews happened to be at home. He emerged from an adjoining room, and when Stein saw him the fellow got out of the house in a hurry, running north with Andrews close at his heels. Stein picked up a brick with which to assault the sprinting printer, and then Andrews grappled with him but he got away. A lot of boys and Charlie Peters joined in the chase and soon Stein was captured. He made no resistance. Andrews brought him to the city and he was put in jail by Capt. Baylor. No one knows yet what Stein intended to do at the Andrews place. To-day Stein appeared before Judge Nelson in the county court and on the information which was filed yesterday, he pleaded guilty to disorderly conduct. The fine was $25 and costs. He will get out of jail when he arranges for the payment of the money.

THE WAR IS ON.

Slaughter House Ordinance to be Enforced by the City.

After many weeks of delay, mainly because no one swore out a warrant, the war against the existence of slaughter houses within the city limits, has been declared, and the question is to be settled in the courts. The ordinance provides that there shall be no slaughter house nearer than a mile beyond the city limits. The ordinance was passed some months ago. The legislation was brought about as a result of agitation kept up by parties living near the present slaughter houses, who insist with more or less emphasis that the smells are unbearable. Yesterday H. H. Wise swore out a warrant for the arrest of J. G. Danzeisen & Son and Fullenwider & Hall, charged with violating the city ordinance by conducting slaughter houses within the city limits. Officer Williamson made the arrests. The parties will appear before Justice Hammer next Tuesday at 8 a. m.

The slaughter house owners will make a vigorous fight to avoid moving out. They claim that their houses are kept clean, and that as a matter of fact the slaughter houses are among the healthiest places in the city.

White Bonanza Oats.

Supervisor Nowlin, of Austin township, brought to town this morning a sample of twenty acres of White Bonanza oats now growing on his farm. The stalks he brought in will average about 3½ to 4 feet in height and are large and strong. The heads are long and full, with every indication that the berry will be large and plump. Quite a number of farmers sent for this oats, about three years ago, and since that have been developing the seed. If the crop on Mr. Nowlin's farm is a fair sample of what this oats will do, it will certainly become popular with our farmers.

Low Rate of Mortality.

There is no better place to determine the comparative rate of mortality, in Illinois, Missouri, Arkansas, Tennessee and Kentucky, than at the Decatur Coffin factory. There is scarcely a year that within this territory there does not exist, in some one or more localities, epidemics of some kind or other to increase the coffin trade. This year, however, so a gentlemen connected with the concern reported last night, there is nothing of the kind anywhere within the limits of their field and consequently the trade is lighter than usual.

"The American Soldier" is the name of a new monthly publication from the press of the Nation Publishing Company, Mail and Express building, New York. It is bound in an artistic lithographed cover, upon which is a Continental Soldier, 1776, and a Union Soldier, 1865, clasping hands, surrounded by the pictures of the heroes of America's four great wars, Washington, 1776; Andrew Jackson, 1812; Scott, 1846, and Grant, 1865. The significant sentence on the cover is, "Pensions are not Alms." The publication sells at $1 a year or 10 cents a copy.

Hurt in a Runaway.

Miss Carrie Smith, of 554 West Main street, daughter of W. M. Smith, was seriously injured in a runaway at Mowequa last evening. She was in a buggy with Mrs. Tillie Stine, when the horse took fright. Both ladies were thrown out of the rig. Miss Smith was carried into the house of A. Gilliland and Mrs. Stine was given attention at the residence of W. C. Miller. Mrs. Stine is reported to have received possibly fatal injuries.

Last evening Mrs. Charles B. Moore and two children arrived in the city from Annapolis, Maryland, where they have been residing for several years. They will make their home in Decatur with the parents of Mrs. M., Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Johns. Lieut. Moore has been ordered to go to sea on the U. S. flagship, Newark, and will go to the eastern coast of South Africa. He will be gone nearly three years, and may then be assigned to land duty again.

FRANK BICKUS, who has the contract for the concrete work at Cheap Charley's store, is now putting down the wide walk on the Lincoln Square and East Main street sides of the building. The cost will run up into several hundred dollars.

Camp Meeting.

At Oakland Park, the first service was held last night and a good interest was manifested. Bishop Coleman will preach to-night. Services will begin at 8 p. m. All are invited.

Returned From College.

Lyan Barnes, who has been at Harvard the past year, arrived home yesterday afternoon to spend his vacation with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. I. N. Barnes.

FOUND DEAD IN BED.

An Old Citizen Called to Eternal Rest Last Night.

Bloomington Leader, July 6.

Danforth K. Lathrop was found dead in bed this morning at the residence of his son, Mr. George Lathrop, 615 West Olay street. Mr. Lathrop had been suffering for several years with paralysis and the last few days was slightly worse but nothing serious was expected. He retired as usual last night as did the family, but when George, the son, rose this morning he went into the room and to his horror found his father dead.

He immediately summoned the family, and in a short time the coroner was sent for. He summoned a jury, and after hearing all the evidence in the case brought in a verdict in accordance with it.

Deceased was born in Vermont, and at the time of his death was 65 years old. About thirty-nine years ago he came to Illinois with his wife, and they settled at Burr Oak Grove. After remaining here for some time they moved to Bloomington. The wife and four sons are still living, including George, the well-known barber, with whom he was living at the time of his death; Walter, Frank and Harry, all of Decatur. He also leaves two brothers in Indiana and one sister in Michigan.

Deceased was a member of the Methodist church, joining at Stapp's Chapel in Decatur.

Funeral of Mrs. John Wickline.

Mrs. Mary Ann, wife of John Wickline died Wednesday, July 5th, at the family residence near Warrensburg, aged 51 years, 1 month and 12 days. Mrs. Wickline was born in Juniata county, Pa., and came to Illinois with her husband in 1868. She was the mother of seven children, five of whom are living. She had been a faithful and consistent christian for many years, and though greatly afflicted for some time, bore her sufferings uncomplainingly. She was a member of the Church of God, and was one of the seven which comprised the first organization of the church at Warrensburg in 1874. The funeral was held at 1 o'clock yesterday at the house, conducted by Elder Berkstresser, assisted by Elders Smith and Ritchie, after which the remains were taken to Boiling Springs cemetery for burial.

Wedding.

Monticello Republican: Married, in the circuit clerk's office, by Rev. J. F. Wohlfarth, July 5, Mr. Scott Crook, of Decatur, and Miss Ida Grason, of Cerro Gordo. Miss Ida is the only daughter of Capt. William Grason. As a matchmaker, Circuit Clerk Hughes stands high. The only charge he makes for his services is an invitation to the wedding and a chance to kiss the bride.

Politics and the Hog Market.

Champaign Gazette: Last week a Logan county farmer sold fifty head of hogs, averaging 348 pounds each, at $5.80 per hundred. A month ago he had been offered $7.40, but held on to them, awaiting the good times that had been promised under the Democratic administration. This misplaced confidence cost him $278.40, and good batch of disappointment besides.

They Will Have Leisure to Think.

Joliet Republican: And now all the workmen are discharged from the Joliet Steel Works, and that institution is now standing with closed doors, while its 2,500 employes of a year ago are all idle. What do the wage-earners of Joliet who voted for Cleveland and free trade for sake of a change think of the change which their votes have wrought?

Births.

To Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cosgrove, of East Marietta street, Thursday, July 6—a daughter.

To Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Krause, at their home on North Railroad Avenue, Thursday, July 6—twin daughters.

To Constable and Mrs. W. W. Conard, Thursday, July 6, at their home one mile east of Decatur—a son.

Arrived Home.

Judge Race and daughter, Miss Ella, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Wood, Ed Wood and family, V. H. Parke, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hardy and Miss Minnie Clark returned from the fair yesterday afternoon. J. M. Clokey, Charles A. Ewing and family, Misses Lnetta and Lena Ullrich, Mrs. A. H. Baker and Miss Grace McMasters returned from the fair last night.

THE water at the Natatorium these hot days is in fine condition for bathing, and those who would cool off should go down and enjoy a swim. Many ladies are there in the morning and at the evening hours. Polite attendants are present and everything is kept neat and clean.

THE Miller Comedy company, which is a part of the Western Circuit attractions, has come to financial grief at Peoria. The company has been playing at Sylvan Park. Manager Simmons has gone to Cedar Rapids, Iowa, to raise money to pay bills contracted at Peoria.

TO-DAY at the Indianapolis races Jack Shepherd started in the 2:15 trot, and Magnetta in the 2:50 trot. Yesterday in the 2:25 pace Effie Powers took third money. The Brenneman Bros., who own the horses named, and Geo. A. Keller, are at Indianapolis.

Installed at Litchfield.

Mrs. Jennie Hawe, Grand Chief of the Pythian Sisters of Illinois, went to Litchfield yesterday, and in that city last night installed the officers in Lawrence Temple, Pythian Sisters, a lodge recently organized.

Going to Europe.

Prof. J. J. Wilkinson, who has been principal of the Decatur High School, has resigned his position at the Lincoln school at Springfield. He will go to Germany to further complete his education.

A NEW SYSTEM.

Telegraphy for Moving Trains May Prevent Accidents.

The railroad men are all talking of the latest invention which tends to the improvement of the railway service and the lessening of accidents. This is a system of telegraphy by which telegrams can be sent to moving trains at any point. It has been tested lately and found to be highly satisfactory. One railroad man in this city said yesterday that it would have the undoubted effect of reducing the number of accidents of the collision order. By its use an operator at a station can talk to an operator on board the train at any point on the road and warn the latter of impending danger. There have been several such inventions, one by an old Peoria county man, but none of them thus far seem to have been of much practical use. It is said that the latest one, however, can be used on any road and that the success is an assured fact. It is to be hoped that it will prove so, as accidents are all too frequent now

Convenient to the Fair.

The new electric street car line from Englewood to the World's Fair grounds has enabled the Wabash line to offer to their patrons the most convenient and cheapest method of reaching the fair. The line passes within one block of Midway Plaisance entrance and makes the run in ten minutes, it also runs direct to the Sixty-third street entrance and this run is made in fifteen minutes. The line belongs to the Chicago City railway and by their system of transfers a passenger can get within two or three blocks of any of the World's Fair hotels for the one 5-cent fare. As is well known, their down town depot, Dearborn station, is the most centrally located of any Chicago depot. North Clark street cars at the door, State street cable half a block away, and Wabash avenue and Cottage Grove line only one and a half blocks distant. It is also within easy walking distance of the principal hotels and business houses. The rates by the Wabash are the lowest. Their train service and equipment superb. Their time the fastest. Avoid tedious delays and transfers by purchasing your ticket via the Wabash line. All trains run through solid to Chicago. july 3-d-1w

A CARBONDALE man who has been hoarding up his money until he is now worth some $40,000, has decided to spend the remainder of his days scattering sunshine. He is 65 years old and has laid away $15,000 to keep him the remainder of his days—estimating $1,000 a year until he is 80 years old and proposes to each year now give away to needy and deserving poor until he has brought his wealth down to the stated notch. He says that up to this date but few have reason to be thankful that he has lived, but in the future his name shall not be associated only with miserly deeds. When he dies no distant relatives will fight over his cash—he himself is going to distribute where it will do good.

GIRARD CHOTEAU, the young man who escaped from the Illinois Asylum for Insane Criminals at Chester, was sent up from White county in 1891 for burglary. His sentence was for six years. It is believed by Supt. Benson that Choteau will go to his mother who resides near Blue Mound and the request to Sheriff Perl is that he be arrested and sent to Chester There is no reward offered for the capture of Choteau, and no provision made to cover expenses.

SATURDAY EVE., JULY 8, 1893.

GOV. STONE, of Missouri, called a one-legged man a liar recently and a personal encounter was the result, in which the governor used an umbrella and the pegleg used his crutch, and yet, taking this into due account, the Globe-Democrat says:

We do not admire Gov. Stone in all respects, but we wouldn't swap him for Gov. Altgeld "even up."

RAILROAD building is down to low figures this year. Only 1,015 miles of main track have been laid in the past six months. This is the smallest total for any half year recently. Generally in the second half of the year the construction is greater than it is in the first half, but unless there is a decided improvement in conditions the aggregate mileage of 1893 will not go above 2,200 or 2,400.

WE suggest a reunion of the fellows who carried the cage of cats in the Democratic jollification procession in Decatur last November. They ought to get to together by all means and pass some resolutions for the benefit of the general public, stating how they like the Democratic victory now, since their experience of four months under Democratic rule. They ought to be able to tell the public where they are "at." If they think they ought to have more people in the meeting than themselves, they might appropriately make the call include those who dragged tin cans about on the same occasion.

SEYMOUR, the mind reader, is on his way to Chicago where he has arranged to attempt the test of being buried alive six feet deep, until a crop of barley can be sowed and raised on the grave, which will take until about September 24, when he is to be disintered after which he will take on life again. We have no objections to urge against Mr. Seymour making the test, but the chances are that he has overestimated his abilities as bad as those Democratic campaigners did, who predicted that a return of the Democrats to power, would at once produce a boom in every line of business.

BETWEEN the time of the passage of the resumption act and the time it came into effect, 1879, Gen. John Charles Black made a political speech in Decatur in which he predicted that when the law took effect the Macon county farmers would not be able to sell their farms for enough money to pay their taxes. Assuming that Gen. B. was honest in these utterances and believed what he said, the result of the resumption of specie payment showed that he did not have an intelligent conception of the science of finance. But Black was not alone in these wild assertions. As a rule the Democratic leaders were guilty of making the same statements. The ignorance of these people was proven by the beneficial and healthy effect of the act when it became operative. It now happens that the same people who demonstrated their ignorance of finance at that time, have been called in special session to legislate upon the financial affairs of the country. If they have no better conception of national financial matters now than they had in times past, there is little chance that they will enact healthy laws. If they were dishonest then, and simply attacked resumption and advocated the repeal of the law for partisan purposes, then the country is, indeed, in the hands of a dangerous class of demagogues who by their trickery and deception will do it more harm than good.

Time For Action.

There are a class of Democratic papers and Democratic campaigners who cannot get the idea into their heads that, being in power, the time has passed when the Democratic party can spend its time criticising the Republican party. They do not realize that the people want something positive out of that party. Touching this changed condition the Chicago Times a few days ago said:

The time for arranging Republican administration has gone by because there is no longer such administration. The time for active formative work has come and the duty of its performance devolves upon the Democratic party. It is said we have an unsafe currency system. Let us make it sound. It is said that the McKinley law is a curse. Let us repeal the McKinley law. But until Democracy has shown what its statesmanship can accomplish toward economy, toward a just revenue and currency system, let it not assail a party out of power save as the work accomplished by that party is used as a warning. We have heard more than enough of the demerit of the Republican party. Let us have some thing to show in actual, tangible, healthful legislation of the Democratic party, of the merits of a triumphant Democracy.

The Democrats are in power in every branch of the government, and promised when it secured power that it would do a good many things which it is said would be beneficial to the people. It ought to do them just as quick as its representatives in congress can get at them. It has wasted a good deal of valuable time already. Here are some of the things it promised to do:

1. Repeal all laws for the Federal supervision of elections.
2. Repeal the McKinley tariff law.
3. Pass a "tariff for revenue only" law, with no "unconstitutional" and robber protection in it.
4. Abolish all reciprocity agreements.
5. Pass all necessary anti-trust laws.
6. Repeal the Sherman law.
7. Do something to keep the silver currency at par with gold.
8. Repeal the 10 per cent tax on state bank issues.
9. Provide for the improvement of the Mississippi and "other great waterways."
10. Admit New Mexico, Arizona and Utah as states.

ANXIOUS DECATUR PEOPLE

Waiting to Hear News from the Cyclone in Iowa.

D. Ferguson, a Wabash employe who boards at J. M. Huff's restaurant, is extremely anxious to hear from his parents and brothers, who reside on two sections in Pocahontas county, Ia., not far from the track of the destructive cyclone which passed through that state Thursday night. Mr. Ferguson fears that possibly his people have suffered serious damage to property or personal injury. But he considers no news good news. Fifteen years ago Mr. Ferguson's father bought the two sections at $5.50 per acre. There are eight sons in the family and all are at home except two—one in Decatur and one in Chicago

Charles Ruehl, of this city, owns a section of land in the northern half of Sac county, Ia., which was doubtless swept by the cyclone. The farm is near Shaler, and is fifteen miles from Storm Lake. Mr. Ruehl is now at his farm, and so is his oldest son and his bride No word has been received from Mr Ruehl by his wife, and there will be more or less anxiety in the family until a letter or letter or telegram is received. A description of the storm with the damage caused appears on the telegraph page of this issue.

An Advanced Country School

Friday, W. H. Parker, of Austin township, was in the city with two other gentlemen interested in the school in the Parker district. They made a contract with Robert F. Davidson, of 1130 North Edward street, to teach the same this winter at a salary of $65 a month Mr Parker states that there is a large and well advanced class in the school that required a teacher of more than average ability and the directors, after consulting the patrons of the school, concluded that it would be better for all concerned to keep the class in the school the coming school year than for each parent to send his children away to some high school or college, which won'd have to be done in justice to the children, unless a teacher was employed that could teach them in the advanced branches that this class must take up It is not often that a country school produces such a class as this one, and it is very creditable to the patrons of the school and the directors that, having such a class, they have employed a teacher to meet the requirements of the case Sixty five dollars a month looks like a stiff salary but the work is worth it and in the long run it will be the best and cheapest thing these people could have done

An Old Document

Augustus Fribourg, father of Lewis W., has in his possession the passport of the interior department of the French government given him when he left France for the United States It is dated July 22, 1875, and will be 48 years old on the 22d of the present month The document gives a very full description of the subject, including a description of the shape of the shoulders and many other parts of the body not now used in a personal description list. It commends him to the care of both civil and military authorities, and requests that in the event of adversity that they render him all the aid within their power The ink on the paper is as distinct as the day the document was executed The paper is of good quality and in the center of the sheet can be seen, when held to the light in the style of a watermark, a medalion embracing the bust of the king, Louis Philippi. At that period there were no ocean greyhounds, carrying living freight across in a few days Transportation was by sail vessels and the trip across the Atlantic consumed about eight weeks.

Meeting of the Bakers' Union.

Adam Keim, of Chicago, state secretary and state organizer of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union, is in the city to attend the state convention which convenes in this city at Painters' Hall at 10 o'clock this afternoon, and will be in session to-morrow and Monday This organization represents 15 local unions in this state and Wisconsin, with a membership of 2,500 About 25 delegates will be present from Chicago, Peoria, Quincy, Bloomington, Springfield, Jacksonville, Milwaukee and Madison During the session the Decatur union will be reorganized State officers will be elected at this meeting

Regular Shoot

Six members of the Decatur Gun club shot yesterday for the club medal at East Park Boulevard. The match was at 50 blue rock clay pigeons, there were 30 singles and 10 pairs, all at unknown angles. John Wood made the best score and will wear the medal until the next shoot. The score was as follows Will surface, 26, R. Taggart, 21, A Balmer 20, J. L Peake, 19 Frank Powers, 22, John Wood 30 Chan Powers made a record of 40 shooting under the same conditions, but he was not contesting for the medal

Truth.

The earliest known advertisement was contained in a newspaper, entitled "Perfect Occurrences of every Date, &c," and printed in 1647. It was an advertisement of a book called "The Divine Right of Church Government" To-day advertising is an art of the highest order, and is indulged in on the theory "that every man is the maker of his own fortune, and must be, in some measure, the trumpet of his fame" TRUTH! is the genius of every advertisement of Ed Dens & Son, the popular Merchant street tailors

Gamblers Raided

Officers Baylor, Mathespaugh, Williamson and Leech raided the gambling houses last night Lew Cain's place had six inmates, Johnson & Bartean's seven, and Henry Cortier's six The proprietors gave a bond of $35 each, and the inmates bonds of $25 each, to appear today It is understood that all of the gambling houses are to be kept closed.

Picnic at Hog Island

A party of young people had a picnic party on Hog Island last night. They went out about 5, had supper on the island and returned home early. In the party were Misses Pet Buckingham, Lena Baby, Ella and Lillie Hanes, Grace Smith, Mame Chamberlain, Dr. Henderson, Dr. Childs and Bert Colby.

LETTER FROM CAPT. STODDARD.

Life in New Mexico as Told by a Decatur Man—Fine Climate for Sick People.

Capt C. O Stoddard, of the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, and salesman at Linn & Scruggs' store, who went west some months ago for the benefit of his rapidly failing health, sends the Republican the following cheery letter:

East Las Vegas, N M., July 5

Eds. Republican I am now at Harvey's Ranch, 25 miles southwest of Las Vegas, nearly 100 feet high. Leaving Las Vegas about 7 o'clock in the morning, we reach the Hot Springs or the Montezuma Hotel at about 8 o'clock. This hotel is the finest hotel in every between Chicago and California, and is located in a beautiful canon, five miles from the town, where the hot springs, forty in number, come boiling to the surface The Montezuma hotel is controlled and operated by the A T & S F R R and they spare no means to make it pleasant and comfortable for its many patrons who go there from all parts of the continent. If I mistake not Mr. W. H Lann has visited the place, and will no doubt bear me out in the above statement. After leaving the springs, we wind over and around the mountain, the scenery of which is unsurpassed anywhere, the mounts a being properly named the "Rocky." After traversing the mountain for 20 miles we at last arrive at Harvey's carriage house. We are now five miles from the ranch, just over one mountain. At the carriage house is a corral and the boys have 17 burros or pack mules, there waiting to take our baggage and all the passengers over the mountain After the stage is put into the house and the burros all properly packed and saddled we start Such a sight! All following one after the other, only stopping to get a moment's rest and then onjwe go, at some points along the travel you think it impossible to get over, the trail probably being only 14 inches wide, and you look down and for a thousand feet a man sees nothing but solid rock, almost perpendicular This makes your hair straighten out and up for one minute and all would be over, and over the mountain as well, but the little animals are very sure footed We had one party in our crowd whose legs were so long he had to double them up to keep them from dragging Well, we are now at the ranch We meet Mr and Mrs Harvey who at once add us to their list of guests, do everything for our comfort and enjoyment. Mr. Harvey at one time was a big merchant in Boston, and their family being in poor health came out here in the mountains 11 years ago and at once adapted themselves to the surroundings, set to work and with the aid of two sons and Mexican help, built a number of log houses The logs are quakinasp, peeled and are as white and pretty to day as they were when first built Lumber is scarce article and hard to get up in the mountains Instead of one large hotel, as one would think, they have 20 or 25 houses for the guests, but all eat in one large dining room, and if there was ever a table loaded with the luxuries of life, their table is surely one of them They know just what to prepare and how to prepare it They milk 11 cows and we have good rich milk, and it isn't skimmed either, all we can drink On each end of the table is a gallon pitcher full of good thick cream, and plenty more where that came from I make mention of the table as you know it is a very essential element in gaining strength I have gained six pounds myself and have only been here three weeks. The climate is indeed grand, I think better here than at Las Vegas The altitude is higher and no winds, nor sand blowing, to make it disagreeable In fact I think the ranch is the natural sanitarium of the United States There is no malaria, no excessive heat of summer nor cold of winter. The air is pure, dry, rarified, and highly electrified—a certain cure for consumption, if the disease be taken in time The latitude is about the same as that of the central part of Tennessee, while the altitude is nearly 10,000 feet The combination gives a peculiar but most happy result in the winter, during the day the thermometer seldom falls, in the shade, below 40 degrees, while it often rises in the sunshine to 65 degrees, or even more. On the other hand, in the summer, the heat is never oppressive in the shade, and no night is too warm for comfortable sleep under one or two blankets The sun will shine 9 days out of every 10 the year round This with the extreme dryness of the air, caused by the very slight precipitation of moisture, the reservoir arome rolling down from the pine clad mountains, and the large amount of electricity in the air, and the consequent ozone, resulting from the altitude—these all conspire to produce an atmosphere which is a balm to all diseases of the respiratory organ And the health part is not all by any means Of course there are no buggies or wagons up here for they can't use them and consequently we travel on burros, and through the kindness of our host these burros are driven into the corral and they are then at once disposed to go and come at will Should a party of 15 or 20 go to the river, the Gallinas river being only 1½ miles from here, our good natured landlady, Mrs Harvey, will prepare "grub" for us and we pack it on a burro and return when we get tired Game is very plentiful, consisting of mountain grouse, deer, turkey and some bear, but we don't care to hunt the latter In fact this place for climate, health and pleasure is unsurpassed

Mr P. Nolen, one of Dr. Childs's patients, has spent a great deal of his time here, and is a different man, pupsically, than when he left Macon county I saw the name of Frank Webb's brother, Robert Webb, on the register, also the name of Mrs. Hight, of Macon We have about thirty guests here, some from Maine, Iowa, Illinois, New York, Ohio, Missouri, Minnesota and Indiana, all here for their health They call me lungers, or tender feet. There is a young man here from Bloomington by the name of Timmer, who came eight months ago He was carried up here on a burro, and was, as everybody thought, past the point of recovery, but to-day he is a stout-looking man, able to do a day's work with any Mexican. The comical feature with Mr Timmer is that a wealthy Mexican, who owns probably 18 or 20 burros, has promised him his daughter, if he is a sound man in one year from the time he came, and he is using every effort to win the dark featured damsel

I am gaining in strength, and hope to return to my home in a few weeks

Yours truly, C O Stoddard

WAS IT "GLASS EATING JO?"

A Negro who was Well Known in Decatur as a Freak

The perpetrator of the outrage and double murder near Bardwell was at Wickliffe, Ky., eight miles north of Bardwell yesterday He gave his name as Charles Miller, but there is a well founded belief that he is a negro known all over the country as "Glass-Eating Joe." He has been in the habit of giving glass-eating entertainments at the different towns along the road If the party was the glass-eater, he will be remembered by many Decatur people He was here about two years ago, and made his home with a white family on West Main street He took care of the furnace and the horses at the home of L L Bobbitt and he also gave entertainments at the colored churches on Spring avenue Joe was hanged and burned at the stake yesterday for the murder of the two Ray girls.

An Answer to the Serenade

Eds Republican As to the music of yesterday's serenade alluded to in the Bulletin and Review, the musical instruments were two small horns that were blown by two small babies and not another child took part in it A few days ago, Mrs. Van Hall, had D Brintlinger, commonly known as the undertaker, arrested for an assault on little Lon Van Hall's head 4 years, and for disturbing the peace He was found guilty on both charges and it was Brintlinger's babies that gave the serenade, which did not last long, as the little throats soon gave out, but being urged on by their parents I felt for the babies Now wishing to place myself and family in the right light of our friends, good neighbors and acquaintances I write this answer to yesterday's serenade We respect our former landlord, Mr S Cool, very highly

It Takes Grit

A wise man has to say, Say, young man, there is one thing you cannot do You can't make a success in life unless you work Better men than you have tried it and failed. You can't loaf around street corners and saloons smoke cigars tell foul stories, drink whisky, and sponge on some one else without making a failure in life You must learn a trade or get into some honest business If you don't, you will be a drone to loafer, despised by all, producing nothing—simply making yourself a burden on your parents or the State There is no place in the world for loafers The ripe fruit is all at the top of the tree You must climb to get it Smarter men now jump up and get it on! Move Do something no matter how small It will be a starter Help you self and others will help you There is no royal path to success Toil, grit, endurance—these are the requisites Wake up and see what you can do

TAKE HEART,

If you're a suffering woman The chronic weaknesses, painful disorders, and delicate derangements that come to woman only have a positive remedy in Dr Pierce's Favorite Prescription If you will faithfully use it, every disturbance and irregularity can be permanently cured

It's a legitimate medicine for woman, carefully adapted to her delicate organization It builds up and invigorates the entire system, regulates and promotes all the proper functions, and restores health and strength

"Favorite Prescription" is the only remedy for woman's ills that's guaranteed If it fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back

Which is the best to try, if you have Catarrh—a medicine that claims to have cured others, or a medicine that is backed by money to cure you? The proprietors of Dr Sage's Catarrh Remedy agree to cure your Catarrh, perfectly and permanently, or they'll pay you $500 in cash.

IN old times it seemed to be thought that a medicine must be nauseating to be effective. Now, all this is changed. Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one of the most powerful alteratives, is agreeable to most palates, the flavor being by no means medicinal.

MACON News "The largest land sale in this vicinity for some time was that made on Monday week, when W. M. Phares disposed of his large farm southwest of Macon, to James Mayell. Consideration $19,400. Possession given March 1st, 1894. Mr. Phares at present has no definite plans as to future investment.

IN Justice Shorb's court last evening the case of the People vs. Alice and Harriet Cooper, arrested on complaint of Valentine McWithey, terminated in the discharge of the defendants. The Squire believed the evidence too light to warrant him in holding the women to await the action of the grand jury. They were charged with having threatened to burn a barn and kill a colt.

HENRY MOCK has a case in Justice Provost's court. Through him Mrs. Ollie Butticker has had Frank Sanford, the dealer who sells goods on the installment plan, arrested, charged with larceny. It is alleged that Mrs. B. bought a clothes wringer of Sanford for $8 on the installment plan. She claims to have receipts on the deal to the amount of $8.25. While she was away from home the wringer was taken away. A suit for damages is to follow.

BISHOP H. M. TURNER, of Atlanta Ga., in charge of the missions of the African Methodist Episcopal church, who has just returned from Liberia, is in Louisville, Ky. He said recently that he did not believe there was any future for the negro outside of Liberia, and before long there will be a great exodus of blacks now in America to that country. He is the representative of the Liberian government in America, and desires that the United States shall protect the African republic against the encroachments of the French.

GAME IN SECOND BEST.

Jack Shepard Goes a Mile at Indianapolis in 2:15¼.

Yesterday was the close of the most successful harness meeting ever held in Indianapolis. Sixteen heats were trotted and paced in order to determine the winners in the three events. The 2:50 trot won by Silverdale, while Lugano, who won two heats, adds a new performer to the Rumor family. The 2.13 pace and the 2:15 trot, like the first race, were bruising affairs, as every one was out for the money. That good game 4-year-old, son of Princeton, Henry F., won the race, while Mary Centilivre, winner of two heats, reduced her record from 2:13¾ to to 2:12¼. The last event was won by the Jewett mare, Liesa, who made her first start this year. Summaries:

EXCITEMENT AT PEORIA.

Sam Cooper, an Italian, in Jail, Likely to be Lynched.

PEORIA, ILL., July 7.—Samuel Cooper has been held for the heinous assault on Miss Lottie Schmidt, of East Peoria. He was arrested late last night, on the road to Morton, and as quickly as the Justice had bound him over he was hustled out the back door of the court room and to the jail at Pekin, to keep him from being lynched. Cooper is an Italian, a horse-trader, who has no home. He and a mulatto were seen around the village all day and officers are still hunting the mulatto. Two negroes were released, as there was no case against them. A mob hung around the calaboose until 9 o'clock this morning, and every few minutes compelled the prisoners to pray. Only the fact that the prisoners had not yet been identified prevented a lynching. Miss Schmidt is better today, but gives only an imperfect account and no description of her assailants. Cooper was held on circumstantial evidence. The excitement is intense, and farmers left their work to lend a hand should any hostile demonstration be attempted.

Christian Endeavor Convention.

The Christian Endeavor convention in session at Montreal, Canada, is a significant gathering. It represents a total enrollment for the world of 26,281 local societies with a membership of over a million and a half. It represents also a religious convention in which there is an utter absence of denominationalism and in this respect presents a spectacle which means a broader Christianity, and consequently a more practical Christianity than has ever before been presented to the world. Another significant thing is the fact that, in the Catholic city of Montreal, the convention was made welcome by a Catholic mayor in which he stated that "the battle is no longer one of creeds but one of belief against unbelief.

Suggests Impeachment.

Captain R. M. Hamilton, of Illini township, was in the city to-day mingling with his many friends. Yesterday he received a letter from a friend, John McGuire, of Webster City, Iowa, formerly of Harristown. In the letter was this sentence: "L. F. Houck and family were with us last Sunday. Mr. Houck says Gov. Altgeld ought to be impeached, and I second the motion." Mr. Houck is a well-known Democrat, who formerly resided at Harristown and was a member of the Macon county board of supervisors. It is evident that Houck has no love for Anarchist Altgeld.

Oakland Park Camp Meeting.

There was a large congregation at the camp meeting last night at Oakland Park and a good interest taken. Bishop Coleman preached a stirring sermon. Services will begin to-night at 8 p. m. First services Sabbath morning: Prayer at 7 a. m.; Love-feast at 9 a. m.; preaching at 10:45 a. m. by Bishop Coleman. Preaching at 2:30 p. m. by Rev. W. K. Bonham of Taylorville. Children's meeting at 5 p. m. Preaching again at 8 p. m. by Bishop Coleman. All are invited to attend.

Splendid Wheat.

Tom Jacobs of Wheatland township, has brought the REPUBLICAN the first sample of wheat which has reached this office this year. It is the Red Clawson variety, and cannot be excelled in size and quality. It will run 35 bushels to the acre. Tom says he put in 23 acres and that it is Republican wheat at Democratic prices—53 cents a bushel.

Adjusting Assessments.

The county board committee on equalization of taxes, comprising Supervisors Bean, Starr, Nowlin, Nicholson, Parker Cussins and Davee is still in session attending to their duties. Possibly they will finish their work this evening. The report will be submitted to the board for approval at the full meeting of the board to be held next week.

Local Conference.

This evening and to-morrow, members of the Young Men's Christian Association will conduct a local conference at Macon. To-night's general meeting will be held, to be addressed by a number of the young men, and to morrow afternoon a special meeting for men will be held.

A Daylight Raid.

Captain Baylor, Officers Coe and Cross made a raid on the Harry Hathaway gambling house on East Main street this afternoon at 2 o'clock and captured the house and six others. They were released on bond and are now busy settling with the different justices.

Thieves.

Thieves broke into the barn on the Dr. A. J. Stoner property last night and stole fishing tackle, poles and reels belonging to Fred Stoner amounting in value to about $50.

HANGED, NOT BURNED

The Alleged Murderer of the Bay Sisters at Bardwell, Ky.,

STRUNG UP BY AN INFURIATED MOB,

Most of Whom Wanted to Burn Him at the Stake, but Could not Brook the Necessary Delay—The Prisoner Interviewed.

Not Burned, But Hanged.

PADUCAH, Ky., July 7.—The negro Miller at Bardwell, Ky., was not burned but hanged. He was hung at 3:30 to the disgust of many of the 7,000 people present

Couldn't Wait for a Fire.

BARDWELL, Ky., June 7.—The negro, to a telegraph pole next to the depot Most of the mob wanted to burn him, but in their anxiety and haste they swung him up.

Was He the Guilty Man?

BARDWELL, Ky., July 8.—A United Press representative has interviewed the prisoner He still protests his innocence. He says he left Springfield, Ill., on July 1, going from there to Alton, thence to East St. Louis, then to Jefferson Barracks, Mo., then to De-Soto, then to Jonesboro, Ark., then to Bird's Point, Mo., then to Malden and from there to Sykeston, arriving on the 5th This was impossible No man could possibly make these towns in less than ten or twelve days

Marshal Ingram, of Sykeston, who made the arrest and is here, says the negro had six rings, a bloody razor and a knife, and $16 in money in his possession when captured.

Some doubts are now entertained as to his being the guilty party, but most people believe him guilty, and all evidence points that way.

SPRINGFIELD HIS HOME.

Charles Miller Had a Wife at the Capital—Her Grief.

Charles Miller, the negro who was hanged and burned at the stake at Bardwell, Ky., yesterday, had a wife residing at Springfield, Ill. The State Journal reporter last night found Mrs. Miller at a neighbor's house frantic with grief. Her mind was wandering and at times she was so violent that it required several persons to restrain her Several neighbors were standing around trying to soothe her, but to no avail. She would talk very little on the subject, and then in an incoherent manner. However, her actions and the information received from her neighbors made it plain that the man lynched was her husband.

Miller and his wife came to Springfield last October, telling the neighbors that they came from the southern part of Texas. They went to housekeeping at 716 North Second street, and his wife has since resided there Miller would be at home for two or three weeks at a time, and then he would leave and be gone from four to six weeks. His wife told the neighbors that he owned two barber shops near Denison and spent most of his time there.

A GLASS EATER.

The negro was well known all through the state of Kentucky, and in all the towns on both sides of the Ohio river. For some years he has traveled from place to place, giving glass eating exhibitions. He not only ate glass, but had a ravenous appetite for many kinds of off color dishes.

One of his favorite dishes was a raw chicken. This when devoid of entrails and feathers he would devour in a few minutes with as much gusto and appreciation as a hungry dog would eat meat. Another pet me with him and one by which he often regaled his colored landlord, was to eat a cat that had been baked a day.

WHAT CAN BE DO?

Another Feature of the Lynching Case Comes to the Surface.

In the Daily Review this morning appeared this statement:

A well-dressed and good appearing colored man, evidently a stranger, walked into the Review office last night and asked for the letter that Bush wrote his Alabama relatives the day he was put in jail here. He was told that the original was not to be had, but he could have a copy. That was given him. Then he was asked if he was a relative of Bush, or has a special interest in him. To this the colored man replied:

"You will hear later more of me and my connection with Bush."

Of course this was startling and more questions were fired over the counter with the speed of a Gatling gun, but the only replies were evasive. The inference was, from his replies, however, that he represented Bush's people and was here to see what could be done about having the lynchers prosecuted, and also to get any information about Bush that his relatives would especially care to have. The stranger, however, with a great air of mystery, resolutely refused to tell who he was, where he came from, or what he intended to do.

The REPUBLICAN reporter to-day made an effort to learn the identity of the Review caller, but no one appeared to have seen or heard of him. Possibly he is a myth. The letter which Bush wrote the night before his lynching was published in the REPUBLICAN June 3. It was addressed to his people in the south, but it was never mailed to them. Copies of Decatur papers, however, were sent to them; but until the present time it has not been intimated that any of the relatives of the victim of the mob took any interest in him. What the stranger intends to do is only a matter of speculation. He could swear out a warrant and have certain parties arrested, or he could wait until September and go before the grand jury.

A Decatur colored man, in commenting on the case, said to-day: "Oh, what can the stranger do? No one can do anything. It will be no use to make a row about the case. I am awful sorry the lynching occurred. I have grieved deeply over the matter both ways—that Bush did such a thing and that the people hanged him. It places my people in a bad light. God knows if I could stop the evil things which the black man does, I would stop it at once. I can do nothing and can only regret that it so happens that the black man does not control his passion."

A Branch Business.

The Peoria Packing and Provision company, of Peoria, Ill., have established a branch business in Decatur and have selected Orange Peters for their local manager. Mr. Peters is best acquainted in Decatur business circles as the representative in Central Illinois for the firm of Nelson, Morris & Co., the well known Chicago packers, with whom he was associated for three years. Mr. Peters is an enterprising and hustling agent and his many friends will be pleased to learn of his promotion, and the house may well congratulate themselves upon securing for their local agent so popular a man. A. J. Cano, also quite well known here, will travel through Central Illinois for the Peoria company. There is no reason this company should not succeed in making Decatur a central distributing point as they start under the most favorable circumstances. Mr. Peters' appointment dates from Monday, July 10.

Entler's Brief Boom

To-day a citizen remarked to the REPUBLICAN reporter: "Did you ever learn how Tom Entler's boom for city marshal was started? It was this way: Several Democrats who thought they had made a discovery, and wishing to lay out Joe Hewes, finally fixed upon Tom Entler as the man for marshal. They talked him up, felt around to see how it would take, and then got Entler's name put in the morning papers. But it was believed that in order to make the thing go, it would be better to confer with Mayor Moffitt. One of the most enthusiastic of the conspirators finally approached Mayor Moffitt and suggested the fitness of Entler for marshal and that he be appointed. I am told that the Mayor's pointed reply was something to the effect: 'I'm running this affair, and I reckon I can do it alone.' This was a settler and as you know we have heard no more of Entler for several days."

Found the Horse.

Gypsy Williams, who is a horse trader and has a camp near the Sangamon river, made complaint to the police that a mare and saddle had been stolen from his camp by John Murphey, for whom a warrant was issued. To-day the mare was found at a stable in the Fourth ward, where she had been abandoned. Mr. Williams recovered the mare but the saddle was gone. It had been pawned or sold by Murphey to a saloonkeeper on the levee. It is understood that Murphey will not be arrested, as Williams, who travels from place to place, does not like the idea of coming back to Decatur in September to appear in court as a prosecuting witness.

A THRILLING EXPERIENCE

William Wompen's Team Runs Away and Causes Injury.

Monticello Citizen

On Thursday afternoon when William Wompen and daughter, Miss Tillie, and Miss Carrie Smith, were going to their home northeast of town their team was frightened and ran away. Mr. Wompen was holding the lines, but Miss Tillie in an excitable moment pulled one of the reins and turned the team into the big ditch near the Samuel Miller farm, one mile east of town. The wagon was overturned and Miss Wompen was made unconscious by striking her head upon the earth, and was very much bruised and scratched. Miss Smith was injured in the chest. J. Hammer was coming to town and was near the spot at the time and embarassed one of his horses and hurried on and called Dr. W. F. Buck, who went out immediately. When he arrived Miss Wompen had regained her faculties, but was suffering. She was taken to the home of Samuel Miller near by. Miss Smith came to town and went to the home of the Misses Gulliland where she was well cared for. Mr. Wompen was not hurt, only slightly shaken up, but was held to the ground by the wagon until Mr. Hammer came to his rescue. The injuries received by the two young ladies seem to be quite serious.

Miss Smith, whose residence is in Decatur, is too badly hurt to be brought home at present.

ALL that honesty, experience and skill can do to produce a perfect pill, has been employed in making DeWitt's Little Early Risers. The result is a specific for sick headache, biliousness and constipation. W. F. Neisler.

TO THE Yale graduates Hon. Thomas Weller remarked that the pithiest sentiment he knew of was that of Hon. E. J. Phelps: "They who never make mistakes never make anything."

IGNORANCE of the merits of DeWitt's Little Early Risers is a misfortune. These little pills regulate the liver, cure headache, dyspepsia, bad breath, constipation and biliousness. W. F. Neisler.
